

Wolf Mask Halo Effect with Layered Details

6 APRIL 2026

Create an artistic card using a wolf mask and stencil to build a layered effect with white and black inks. The technique creates a glowing halo around the animal and adds depth through interior and exterior layering.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

See the show for everything used.

Place the wolf mask slightly offset on your card to create the impression that the animal is part of the scene.

Take a white ink pad and a blending brush, then dab white ink around the mask to create a halo or shadow effect.

Watch this step: 56:30 into the show

Blend the white ink outward using a brush with minimal ink to create a soft, gradual transition.

Watch this step: 56:45 into the show

Remove the mask and position the wolf stencil over the white halo area.

Watch this step: 57:15 into the show

Apply black or dark ink through the stencil to darken the interior of the wolf, making the white halo pop.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Don't put yourself under pressure for the mask placement to be precise—slight offsets still look gorgeous.
- Use interior and exterior layering with masks and stencils to create artwork-quality effects.
- Add subtle details like paw prints that catch the eye on closer inspection.
