

Layering Stencil Bluebell Card

15 AUGUST 2026

Use a five-layer stencil system to create depth and dimension in a floral design. Build up colour gradually with each stencil layer to achieve a professional, multi-coloured effect.

From our live show HOBBYMAKER TV - Join us for the latest show - Broadcast 5 p.m. (UK) 15th August 2026 (15 August 2026) - watch it from 40:00.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

See the show for everything used.

Prepare a white or cream card blank as your base.

Choose a dye-based ink colour (such as purple) and tap it lightly through the stencil using a sponge or brush.

Watch this step: 40:45 into the show

Apply stencil number two in the same position and add more colour, pressing slightly harder to build depth.

Watch this step: 41:00 into the show

Continue with stencils three, four and five, gradually increasing the pressure and colour intensity with each layer.

Watch this step: 41:30 into the show

For the final layer, press firmly to create the darkest, most defined areas of the design.

Watch this step: 42:00 into the show

If desired, add a contrasting colour (such as green) to the leaves or stems using the same stencil system.

Watch this step: 42:30 into the show

Allow the card to dry completely before removing the stencils.

Optional: spray the finished design lightly with water to create an ethereal, blended effect for artistic variation. Watch this step: 43:30 into the show

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Start with light pressure and build up gradually—you can always add more colour, but you cannot remove it.
- Keep the stencil aligned with the edge of your card for consistent placement of all layers.
- If you make a mistake or the layers don't line up perfectly, spray with water to blend and soften the effect into an artistic finish.
