

Monochromatic Reflection Card with Torn Paper...

13 DECEMBER 2024

Make a second card using waste paper from the first project, featuring a single lady from the Reflection stamp in black and white. This simpler design uses torn paper scraps layered with 3D pads and a long thin sentiment for a clean, contemporary look.

From our live show ONE DAY SPECIAL - Join Toni for her brand new launch - Broadcast 13th December 24 (13 December 2024) - watch it from 33:00.

Tear strips of leftover patterned and white paper from your first card project to create organic edges.

Watch this step: 33:30 into the show

Ink just the top portion of the Reflection stamp with black ink to capture a single lady figure.

Watch this step: 34:30 into the show

Stamp the lady onto a white top folding card, positioning her in the upper portion of the design.

Watch this step: 35:30 into the show

Stamp a long thin sentiment such as 'Hello' in black ink below the lady image.

Watch this step: 36:30 into the show

Layer one torn paper strip flat onto the card base beneath the stamped image.

Watch this step: 38:00 into the show

Attach a second torn paper strip using 3D adhesive pads to create dimension and visual interest.

Watch this step: 38:30 into the show

Layer a third torn paper piece on top with 3D pads to build up the layered effect.

Watch this step: 39:00 into the show

Ensure all elements are adhered securely and the design is balanced across the card front.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Tearing paper by hand creates softer, more organic edges than cutting, adding visual interest to your design.
- Use 3D adhesive pads sparingly to avoid the card becoming too bulky whilst still creating noticeable dimension.
