Place your 12x12 sheet of paper on the scoreboard and score down the centre at the 6-inch mark.

Watch this step: 12:45 into the show

Cut the paper in half along the score line to create two 6x12 pieces.

Watch this step: 13:15 into the show

On the first piece, score at 4 inches and 8 inches to divide it into three sections.
Watch this step: 13:30 into the show

On the second piece, score at half inch, 4.5 inches and 8.5 inches.
Watch this step: 14:15 into the show

Fold the first piece into three sections along the score lines.
Watch this step: 15:00 into the show

Cut a curved arch from the bottom edge of one section freehand with scissors to create a pocket opening.
Watch this step: 15:30 into the show

Glue the side and base edges of the arched section to form a pocket, leaving the top open.
Watch this step: 16:45 into the show

Fold the second piece and glue the hinge strip to connect it as an additional page to your album base.
Watch this step: 17:30 into the show

Punch half circles along the edge of another section using the 2-inch punch to create a decorative pocket. Watch this step: 19:15 into the show

Glue the bottom edge of the punched section to create a second pocket with a scalloped top. Watch this step: 20:45 into the show

Cut a coordinating paper panel and glue it to the inside front cover to create a background layer. Watch this step: 23:00 into the show

Embellish the album pages with cute animal toppers, floral elements and coordinating paper scraps from your stash. Watch this step: 31:45 into the show

Wrap elastic around the album spine and tie a bow on the front cover for closure and decorative detail. Watch this step: 43:00 into the show

Add a final decorative scene panel to the front cover with blended ink edges and a cute animal topper. Watch this step: 49:00 into the show

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- You can use single-sided or double-sided paper; both work equally well for this project.
- Keep measurements to a bare minimum to avoid complication; the decorating is the fun part.
- Maintain at least a half-inch hinge on any folded elements to ensure they hold securely and don't come apart.
