

Double-Pocket Page with Front and Back Pockets

25 NOVEMBER 2024

Create a versatile double-pocket page for your 6x6 album featuring decorative patterned papers in rich florals with blues, pinks and golds. This clever design offers storage pockets on both the front and back surfaces, maximising space for photos, journaling cards and embellishments. The project uses simple folding and adhering techniques to construct a functional hinged page that opens to reveal both pocket areas.

From our live show MIGHTY MONDAY - Join Toni for her detailed papercrafting sessions - Broadcast 25th November 24 (25 November 2024) - watch it from 23:00.

STEP 3

Trim away the hinge section that overlaps with your pocket area to prevent bulk when the pieces are layered together.

STEP 4

Cut a line down the centre of the patterned panel from the top edge to the two-inch score line.

Fold both flaps inward to create your front pocket. The grey patterned panels should fold in to meet at the centre, forming a pocket on the front of your page.

Apply adhesive tape or glue along the side edges of the pocket to seal them closed. Press firmly to secure the layers together.

Use a 1-inch circle punch to create an opening at the top of your back pocket piece. Position the punch approximately 2 inches from the bottom edge of the white card.

STEP 10

Seal the back pocket by applying adhesive tape or glue along the open edges to secure the pocket in place.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Plan your hinge placement carefully so it does not interfere with your pockets.
- You can tuck hinges underneath pockets if needed, but ensure you have space for them.
- Using offcuts for the back pocket saves paper and creates a cohesive design.
