

Winter Scene Watercolour Card with Aurora Sky

11 NOVEMBER 2024

Create a stunning Christmas card featuring a snowy village scene with an enchanting aurora borealis-inspired sky. Using watercolour techniques on hot-foiled card, you'll build beautiful layers of purple, pink and blue to create depth and a magical winter atmosphere. Complete your festive scene with Santa's sleigh flying overhead and sparkling snow effects for that perfect seasonal touch.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

- Stamps By Me - Hot Foiled Coloring Book - Winter Scenes - 110424B

STEP 1

Using a flat brush and clean water, wet the top portion of the card above the house line. Work on a slightly tilted surface to allow the water to settle evenly.

Watch this step: 34:15 into the show

STEP 2

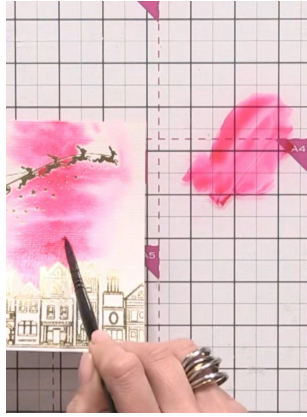

Using a clean water brush, carefully paint water around the outlines of the stamped houses to protect them from the sky colour that will be added later.

Watch this step: 34:30 into the show

STEP 3

Apply pink watercolour to the wet sky area by pouncing your brush. Hold the card at an angle so the colour disperses downward across the sky.

Watch this step: 36:45 into the show

STEP 4

Add pink watercolour to the sky area above the buildings, pouncing the colour onto the foiled areas. The foil will resist the watercolour, creating natural separation and texture in the sky.

Watch this step: 37:30 into the show

STEP 5

Add purple watercolour to the sky area, blending it with the blue. Continue to pounce the brush for even distribution of colour across the background.

Watch this step: 38:15 into the show

STEP 6

Soften any harsh colour edges on the watercolour background by gently blending with a damp brush or your finger. Work the colours together where they meet to create smooth transitions between the pink, purple and blue areas.

Watch this step: 40:00 into the show

STEP 7

Using yellow watercolour, paint all the house buildings. Work from top to bottom, ensuring the blue sky is completely dry before you begin.

Watch this step: 46:00 into the show

STEP 8

Add orange watercolour to half of each building to create a lit effect, then apply a darker orange line down the side for dimension.

Watch this step: 46:30 into the show

STEP 9

Dry the card completely using a heat gun, moving it steadily over the watercoloured sky and buildings until fully dry. Alternatively, leave the card to air dry naturally.
Watch this step: 50:15 into the show

STEP 10

Add white paint flicks across the sky and buildings to create snowflakes. Use the end of your paintbrush to add gold sparkle details to the houses.
Watch this step: 51:00 into the show

STEP 11

Mount the finished painted winter scene onto a card base. The card features the coloured houses at the bottom with the purple and pink gradient sky above, complete with the gold foiled Santa sleigh and sparkle details.
Watch this step: 56:00 into the show

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Watercolour dries two shades lighter than it appears when wet, so apply darker tones than you think you need.
- The gold foil on the card naturally resists watercolour paint, so you don't need to worry about contaminating the foiled areas.
- If you're not happy with the colour distribution while it's still wet, use a spray bottle or flick water from your fingers to reactivate and blend the paint.
