

Rubons Embellished Card with Envelope

19 SEPTEMBER 2024

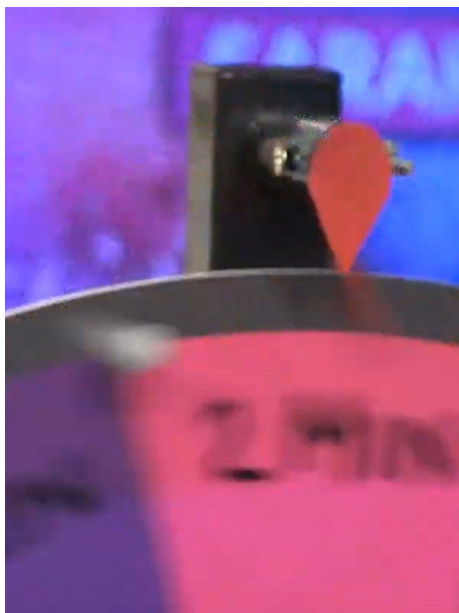

Create an elegant card and coordinating envelope embellished with beautiful rub-on transfers. This project features delicate floral designs in soft pink tones, demonstrating how to apply rubons to achieve a sophisticated, professional finish on both card and envelope. The technique allows you to add intricate decorative elements without the need for stamping or die-cutting.

From our live show CRAFT BATTLE - Join the fun, chaos and intense creativity as Toni and Sarah go HEAD-TO-HEAD - broadcast 19th September 24 (19 September 2024) - watch it from 45:00.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

Select your desired rub-on transfers from the Magnolia kit's embellishment selection. Choose designs that complement your card theme.

Watch this step: 45:30 into the show

Position your chosen rub-on transfer on the card or envelope where you want it to appear. The transfers can be placed on the floral images or other areas of your design.
Watch this step: 46:00 into the show

Use a spatula or brush handle to carefully rub the transfer design onto your card surface. Apply gentle, even pressure to ensure the rub-on transfers completely from the backing sheet.
Watch this step: 46:30 into the show

Carefully peel away the carrier sheet from the rub-ons to reveal the transferred design on your card.
Watch this step: 47:00 into the show

Stamp a sentiment onto the card using the provided ink pad and stamps from the kit. Position the sentiment where desired on your card front.
Watch this step: 48:00 into the show

Apply rub-on transfers to the envelope flap to coordinate with your card design. Position the transfers on the flap and burnish them thoroughly to ensure they adhere properly.
Watch this step: 49:00 into the show

Layer embellishments such as die-cut flowers, butterflies or other decorative elements around your rub-on designs to add dimension and visual interest to your card.

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Keep rub-on transfers on their carrier sheet until you're ready to use them, as the adhesive can dry out if exposed.
- Cut away elements from the rub-on sheet one at a time as you use them to keep the rest intact.
- Do not apply rub-ons on top of wet ink, as they will not adhere properly.
