

Woodland Wolf Card with Stencil and Mask Layering

13 JULY 2026

Create a striking wolf portrait card using stamp, stencil and mask layering techniques. The design builds up with brown tones for the wolf, then a contrasting blue background, creating depth and visual interest with minimal effort. The finished card features a detailed wolf face with the sentiment 'Thanks for always being there' on a white card base.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

See the show for everything used.

STEP 1

Stamp the large wolf head image onto white card stock using the Eureka 101 stamping platform. Position the stamp carefully and press firmly to transfer the detailed image.
Watch this step: 37:30 into the show

STEP 2

Place the outside edge stencil over the stamped wolf image. Using a brush, ink through the stencil with brown tones, layering lighter and darker browns to create depth and dimension.
Watch this step: 38:45 into the show

STEP 3

Position the grey wolf mask over the coloured wolf image to protect it from further inking. Ensure the mask aligns precisely with the stamped image underneath.
Watch this step: 40:45 into the show

STEP 4

Using a blending tool with blue ink, blend colour around the masked wolf image to create contrast against the background. If the mask shifts slightly whilst working, gently reposition it and continue blending.
Watch this step: 41:00 into the show

STEP 5

Carefully remove the mask from the wolf image to reveal the finished layered effect. The wolf will now stand out clearly against the blue blended background, showing the detailed stamped image with its natural colouring.

STEP 6

STEP 7

Stamp a sentiment from the set onto the bottom of the card using black ink to complete your woodland wolf design.

Watch this step: 42:15 into the show

For a three-wolf effect, position the mask over your stamped wolf image and stamp again to create additional wolves. Repeat the masking and stamping process to build up depth and create a pack of wolves on your card.

Watch this step: 42:30 into the show

TIPS FROM THE SHOW

- Use a stamping platform to ensure accurate placement of large stamps.
- You can use the stencil's inside or outside edge depending on the effect you want to create.
- If you make a mistake with ink, cover it with another element like a sentiment or decorative piece.
